

Brad D. Simons, MD, PhD, is a board certified, fellowship-trained Pediatric and Neuro-Ophthalmologist. He is delighted to be practicing in northern Palm Beach County, where he is committed to providing high quality care to his patients.

Dr. Simons' extensive training has made him a leader in his chosen fields. He has over 30 publications in national and international peer-reviewed ophthalmology journals and ophthalmic textbooks, including subjects such as photoscreening for amblyogenic risk factors in children, retinopathy of prematurity, management and surgical management of congenital ptosis and cataracts, and surgical management of cranial nerve palsies. He has also directed national and international clinical trials in ophthalmology.
